Club members were busy with Community Service. They participated actively in the formation of the Pine Rivers Kindergarten which originally commenced in the downstairs hall of the Congregational Church at Kallangur. There was more work when the new building was erected in Harding Street, Kallangur. A major task was to paint the roof of the new building. They supplied and erected a new sandpit for the use of the children. The Club retained its interest in the Kindergarten for some time. Some members served many years on the Kindergarten Administrative Committee.

Members erected a new fence for the Girl Guides building and built a cricket pitch at the Marsden Home for Boys, Kallangur.

Doug Shanks led an appeal to give assistance to a local family whose father had tragically been killed in a work accident in Cairns.

An inter-club visit with a difference was enjoyed when members travelled to South West Queensland to share a meeting with the Rotary Club of Goondiwindi.

From time to time, members visited local schools giving inspirational talks. Youth work continued when the Club hosted for the first time, a Rotary Youth Leadership Awardee from Ballina attending R.Y.L.A.

Dinner fees increased to $1.25
